

THE STILL SMALL VOICE

NEWSLETTER FOR TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON THE GREEN

Dear Friends,

Trinity Church and the City of New Haven have been co-evolving for centuries. We have a shared history of struggling and flourishing together through times of war and peace, innovation and immigration, suburbia and academia.

We also share a common care for the residents of New Haven. But more than that, Trinity would hardly be itself if it were located anywhere else. New Haven is our blessed home and this context informs who we are as a community of faith. It offers us challenges and opportunities that make us distinctly Trinity Church on the Green. So it is with great excitement that we celebrate New Haven's 375th anniversary.

This year's celebration of our city's 375th anniversary will be another opportunity to connect with the richness of our context by honoring the hands that built New Haven, people such as John Davenport, Edward Hopkins, Elihu Yale, and David Wooster, as well as the countless souls who invested their lives over the centuries in the hope of building a new haven for their families.

As our church's history is intensely interwoven with our city, we will join the celebration of this 375th anniversary at several occasions this spring. On Saturday, April 27 we will join the city's festivities and offer guided tours of our church. On that day, in collaboration with the New Haven Garden Club, we will also screen the documentary "The New Haven Green: Heart of a City". And on Saturday, June 15 we will join Center Church and United Church for a common celebration on the Green.

The commemoration of our history in this city in this corner of the world is also a reminder of our calling to be of service to this community here and now. We pray that our celebration may bring a renewal of our dedication to the people of our city and to the values that strengthen our identity in Christ.

Blessings,

Lent/

TRINITY'S CELEBRATION OF THE 24TH NATIONAL AFRICAN AMERICAN READ-IN - SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 3: A HUGE SUCCESS

By: Eleanor Q. Tignor

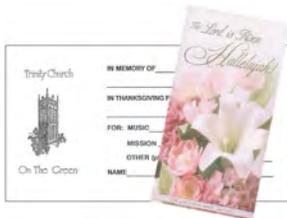

For 1 hour and 20 minutes we came together. The attending members of the 7:45 and 9 A.M. services had been prepared, as is Trinity/Walden Moore tradition, with the singing of "Lift Ev'ry Voice and Sing," the Negro National Anthem. In introducing the Read-In, the audience was told of the establishment of Negro History Week in 1926 by Negro historian Dr. Carter G. Woodson and of the federal government's transformation of that week into a month in 1976. This information was preparation for many readings showing the movement from slavery to abolition, to equal rights for African Americans, in recognition of the 150th anniversary of the Emancipation Proclamation, the Civil Rights Movement, highlighted by Dr. Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream" speech 50 years ago, and the election and recent re-election of the first African American president of the United States.

We read, listened, learned, and were inspired by voices from the African American past and present. Among the voices of slavery were Frederick Douglass, Sojourner Truth, and Frances E. W. Harper. Douglass was also the subject of a powerful poem by Langston Hughes, whose poems were again a highlight of the Read-In. The dire condition of slavery was the theme of a Claude McKay poem, followed by a call for equality in a Maya Angelou poem. The early twentieth century was highlighted by an excerpt from Souls of Black Folk by W.E. B. DuBois and a Dudley Randall poem on the debate for how to achieve equal rights, as perceived by Dr. DuBois and Booker T. Washington. We heard the voice of migration to the North in Isabel Wilkerson's The Warmth of Other Suns and were introduced to Nobel Prize laureate Toni Morrison's newest novel Home. President Obama was celebrated through the reading of Elizabeth Alexander's "Praise Song for the Day," written for his first Inauguration. Voices of faith were expressed through two poems that called us to remember the tragedy of Sandy Hook and in an 1838 anti-slavery speech by Methodist Bishop Daniel Alexander Payne. The church school was represented by several children and staff; thanks to the planning of Linda Sheehan. One book was entitled I Love My Hair. Poems by Trinity favorite Lucille Clifton were read. The morning was summed up in the words of Margaret Walker's "For My People." We closed with a surprise "lesson" on the folk.

Many thanks to all 26 readers, including our rector, associate rector, parishioners from three services, to the very warm and receptive audience, to our indispensable sign-in team—Ellen Freiler, Michele Schiraldi, and Lisa Omark—to Justin Haydu for his invaluable and indispensable assistance, to the church office staff, to everyone who assisted with and supported the Read-In, and those who have offered words of congratulations on the nature and success of the event.

Easter Offering and Memorial Envelopes

Please have your Easter Offering and Memorial Envelopes returned to the office—950 Chapel Street, 2nd Floor, New Haven, CT 06510—no later than Wednesday, March 28 in order to include the names in the Easter Day bulletins. Additional envelopes are available in the church vestibule.

Trinity's Fourth Annual Easter Egg Hunt

Easter Sunday, March 31, between the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Services.

Weather permitting, the fun will take place outside on the Green between Trinity and Center Church. Rain will move the Hunt to the Undercroft.

A Note About Easter Music

With this issue of the Voice, you will note a request for donations for Easter music. These donations will be more important than ever this year, as we are excited to announce that this Easter we are going to have brass instruments in addition to the tympani for the first time in many years.

We have been able to find a strong quintet of instruments that we could get together as a group. They will play for the end of the 9:00 a.m. service as well as at the 11:00 a.m. service, accompanying the hymn singing as well as some of the choral music.

Please be especially generous in your donations so that we can be sure to meet the expenses of that weekend, which are not covered in the parish budget. Thank you!

Stations of the Cross - Monday of Holy Week, March 25

On March 25 our bishops are planning to lead the Stations of the Cross in Washington, D.C., as a public witness against violence in our society. Anyone interested in joining in this trip can find additional information and details about transportation on the diocesan website, www.ctdiocese.org.

Recognizing that not everyone will be able to make the trip to Washington, D.C., and in solidarity with our bishops, the Rev. Tracy Johnson Russell, the Rev. Luk De Volder, the Rev. Vicki M Davis, and Deacon Kyle Pederson are working with representatives of the Episcopal Churches in New Haven along with sisters and brothers from other faiths and backgrounds to plan a public witness with a Stations of the Cross around the New Haven Green on March 25 at Noon, to stand with all those in our city who wish to challenge every kind of violence and bring about peace and reconciliation in our community. This is but one step among many that it will take to bring about wholeness and healing in our city and in our interconnected lives.

Further details about the Stations of the Cross on the New Haven Green will be distributed as they become available.

Maundy Thursday Nightwatch

From the end of the Maundy Thursday service—around 9:00 p.m. on March 28—until Communion from Reserved Sacrament at 7:00 a.m. on Good Friday, parishioners will keep watch in one hour shifts, remembering the words of Jesus to his disciples, “Could you not watch with me one hour?”

So how does this work?

Two parishioners sign-up for one hour shifts throughout the night. There will be meditation materials available in the columbarium. A sign-up sheet is available at the back of the church on Sundays; please sign-up by Sunday, March 24. Contact the Parish Office at office@trinitynewhaven.org for information.

Will I be safe?

We have taken many measures to ensure your safety. One of Trinity’s sextons will be there to provide security for you. Participants will be given a cell phone number to call in order to be let into the building. Once you are in the building, the doors will be locked. If you have any concerns about safety or do not have a cell phone to call from, please let us know and we will work something out.

4th Annual Foot Care Clinic on Maundy Thursday

Chapel on the Green will combine the tradition of foot-washing with real foot care for those who live on the city’s streets on Maundy Thursday, March 28, 2013, from 1:00 - 3:30 p.m., outdoors, behind Trinity Church on the Green.

Feet will be washed and massaged; new socks provided and vouchers for a new pair of shoes at Bob’s Stores will be distributed for those first 40 having their feet washed; rain or shine.

Come join Bishop Ian Douglas, local clergy, Yale physician’s assistants, Quinnipiac and Gateway College nurse practitioners and many other caring and giving people, and make a gentle difference in the life of another!

Volunteers to manage the line, wash feet, support feet washing stations and issue vouchers get ready for the ride of your lives!

Wanna give good presence? Let us show you how!

Volunteer orientation commences promptly on Sunday, March 24 immediately following the 2:00 p.m. Chapel on the Green service from 3:15 - 3:45 p.m., behind Trinity Church on the Green, in New Haven. You might be the lucky person whose feet I wash!

There really is no good Sunday to meet for orientation, so the Sunday before it is. Please let Luz Colville know if you simply can’t do the 24th. She would be happy to hold an orientation during the week.

We’ll show all attending, the big picture set-up, what to expect, step-by-step flow from a client’s point of view, a foot washer’s view, et al.

Seriously, this particular gift of presence and affirmation of another isolated human being, lifting them into an embrace of loving community, will be one of the most spiritual, calming and satisfying experiences of your life AND the life of the person you serve.

We hope to see you there!

Maundy Thursday is about Christ giving a new commandment to love one another as he loved us. At the heart of this holy day is service. Chapel on the Green, COTG, is an outdoor ministry of Trinity Church and gathers each Sunday at 2:00 p.m. behind Trinity Church, to feed body and soul.

Foot care is a real issue for those living on the streets. We will have medical staff, including podiatrists, to perform foot examinations. We are also distributing socks. Warm dry socks are crucial to many people who attend COTG and are often more desired than food. We also will distribute shoe vouchers with thanks to discounts from Bob’s Stores in Hamden. If you would like to donate $40 for shoes (you may give less, you may give more) please make checks payable to Trinity Church with “Foot Clinic” in the memo.

For more information, please call Luz Colville: (203) 812-0340; mcolville@trinitynewhaven.org.

Service of the Seven Last Words of Christ on Good Friday

Every Good Friday, Trinity has an ecumenical service of the Seven Last Words of Christ. The service takes place from 12:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. Seven people preach one sermon on one of the traditional seven last words of Christ. We are pleased and honored to have an extraordinary gathering of preachers at Trinity for the annual three hour service of preaching, music and meditation. We encourage you to come to as much of this traditional Trinity service as you can and to bring friends who find special value in some of the greatest preaching in America. Our preachers for this year are (in alphabetical order:)

Climate Revival Event

advocate for restoration and renewal."

Rich Walser is organizing the logistics for Trinity and the New Haven Deanery and hoping to charter a bus if enough people would like to go. This is an ecumenical event, so parishioners are encouraged to bring their friends from other churches and denominations who would like to participate. Please have anyone who would like to attend contact Rich by email at richard.walser@gmail.com and to put 'Climate Revival Event' in the subject line.

The Episcopal Churches of New England "Province 1" are cosponsoring the 'Climate Revival' on Saturday, April 27 in Boston. Our Presiding Bishop will be preaching/celebrating at the event. It will be a fun filled and "inspirational day of preaching, worship, prayers, and music as we celebrate the splendor of creation, mourn its desecration, and advocate for restoration and renewal."

132nd Annual Meeting of the Episcopal Church Women, Diocese of Connecticut

Thursday, May 2, at The Aqua Turf, Southington, CT

Guest Speaker will be The Rev. Timothy Safford, Rector of Christ Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
"Voices Found: The Witness of Three Founding Mothers of the Episcopal Church"

Please join the Trinity Church on the Green table (seats 10) for this annual luncheon meeting of the ECW Diocese of Connecticut. Cost is $18 per person. They ask each church to send in one check and one reservation form, so please give/send your check, made out to Trinity (with ECW in the memo), along with your reservation information, to The Rev. Vicki M. Davis. Trinity has a long connection with the ECW, and this is a wonderful annual opportunity to renew those ties and connect with the women of the Episcopal Church in Connecticut.

Circle of Caring

"We tend to use prayer as a last resort, but God wants it to be our first line of defense. We pray when there's nothing else we can do, but God wants us to pray before we do anything at all." ~ Oswald Chambers

"I have so much to do that I shall spend the first three hours in prayer." ~ Martin Luther

We have a rich prayer life and tradition here at Trinity. In addition to the variety and richness of our liturgical life, there are three ministries of prayer specifically:

- During the liturgies, we include Prayers of the People, for those who have asked for special prayers at a time of need and/or concern, usually over a two-week period with renewals requested;
- We offer hands-on healing prayers at every Sunday and Wednesday service during Communion and following, in the Columbarium area, for those seeking prayers for specific concerns and/or thanksgivings;

- There is a more extensive Circle of Caring, consisting of prayers requested by individuals, as well as prayers for certain groups and conditions in the world at large, which is circulated by e-mail to all who have requested to be part of this Circle. Recipients of the Circle of Caring undertake to include the prayers therein in their own daily prayers, so that quite literally and theologically and powerfully, we do create a "circle of prayer" around the concerns expressed. There are currently around 150 parishioners participating in this Circle of Caring. If you would like to join in this prayer circle, and/or if you have concerns that you would like to be added to the prayers, please let Christine Janis know at Christine.janis54@yahoo.com.

Annual Plant Sale

Trinity will have a Plant and Flower Sale on the Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of Mother's Day weekend (May 10-12). Working with a local wholesaler, we will be selling plants, flowers, and annuals for the garden at competitive prices.

Plans are underway and we would love more volunteers to join the team working on this project. To volunteer or to obtain more information, please contact: Debby Kraemer or Jack Tebes at stewardship@trinitynewhaven.org or Mary Ann Stroup at trinitybazaar1@gmail.com.

Pre-Order forms will be available shortly. The plants/flowers can be picked up at Trinity on Friday, May 10 from 11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.; Saturday, May 11 from 11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.; and Sunday, May 12 from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. We hope this becomes a wonderful opportunity to help Trinity while also bringing beauty to your home or garden, and to family, friends, neighbors, and people with whom you work.

Sunday afternoon services at Trinity

There will be services of Choral Evensong on Sunday, April 21 and Sunday, May 5 at 5:00 p.m.

Our last two Taizé services for the season will be held on Sunday, April 14 and Sunday, May 19 at 5:00 p.m.

Annual Spring Concert: Save the Date!

On Friday, May 17 at 7:30 p.m., the Men and Boys & Men and Girls will present their annual Spring Concert—SpringSongs, a concert featuring some of the lighter side of choral music. This concert will take place in the Church Hall of St. Mary's Church, Hillhouse Ave. in New Haven (the Church Hall is directly beneath the main church). Having it in their church hall allows us to seat the audience at tables and serve refreshments during the performance. Watch future editions of the E-News

Annual Bishops' 5K for Kids

Saturday, May 18. The 12th Annual 5K for Kids is USATF Certified for the serious runner, and for those who just want to have fun. The 5K course starts and ends at Webster Hill School in West Hartford. This is a family-friendly event for serious athletes as well as walkers of any speed. Jogging strollers ok, and wagons for walkers ok.

All profits benefit the Bishops Fund for Children, which makes grants to programs working with children at risk in Connecticut.
